

GOVERNANCE CONSULTANTS

We're looking for a GOVERNANCE CONSULTANT to make a real difference

Allow us to introduce ourselves

We're A Different View, an international consulting firm specialising in visitor experience. We were set up more than a decade ago by two women around a kitchen table in Nashville who had ideas, passion, skills and a vision to make a difference to their clients. Although our team in the US and UK has grown, our vision has remained the same. Every day we work hard and have lots of fun providing creative, innovative thinking that helps clients make the best strategic decisions for their long-term success. So far, it's going brilliantly, but we could use some help.

And that's where you come in

We're looking for fantastic, part-time, freelance consultants that specialise in governance to work with our team and help our clients in inspiring and imaginative ways. Our clients are mainly from these sectors:

- Museums and heritage
- Arts and culture
- Zoos and aquariums
- Themed entertainment

You should have a few years' experience of working in any of these sectors. And although, technically, you'll be freelance, we'll make you feel like a close member of the team and will invest in your professional development.
